

The Passion

Millions will watch
but where can they find out more?

Many people will look to the local church. For others, exploring at a distance at first
will be an attractive option.

Working on behalf of all the major churches of Britain and Ireland, the Christian Enquiry Agency will provide all enquirers - in confidence and free of charge - with information on the Christian faith, a point of contact for questions they have, and suggestions for next steps, such as attending a course at their local church.

We can be contacted using any of the methods below. Feel free to publicise these as widely as you like.

SMS: text "PASSION" to 81025 (charged at users' standard rates and generates a free response with details of ways to find out more by web, email and freepost)
